

Monkfish Book Publishing Company
22 East Market Street, Suite 304
Rhinebeck, New York 12572
845.876.4861
monkfishpublishing.com

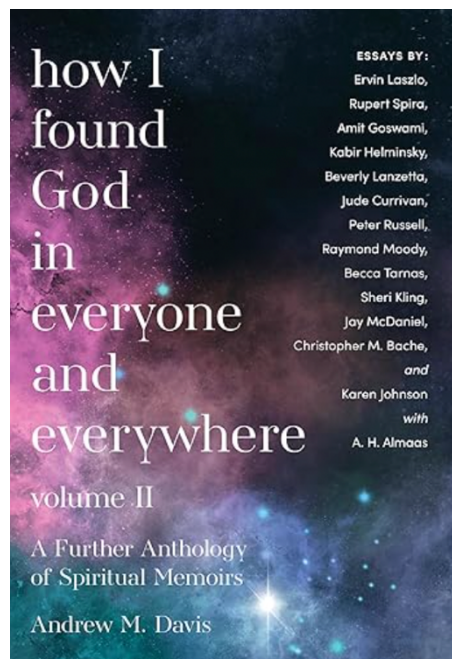

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“These personal spiritual and intellectual narratives by pioneering teachers include dark nights of despair, the joy of scientific and intellectual discovery, physical movement, and perhaps most interestingly — enlightenments brought on by psychedelic, mystical, and near-death experiences (NDE).”

SpiritualityandPractice.com, January 15, 2025

Publishing on January 28, 2025, How I Found God in Everyone and Everywhere: Volume 2: A Further Anthology of Spiritual Memoirs, edited by Andrew M. Davis (Paperback original; ISBN 978-1958972434; 244 pages, US $23.99) captures the spiritual shift away from popular notions of a God “up there” and “out there” and toward immanent and inclusive understandings of a God in our very midst. It is built around the fascinating personal journeys of a close-knit group of prominent contributors, leaders including Christopher M. Bache, Jude Currivan, Amit Goswami, Kabir Helminsky, Karen Johnson with Hameed Ali (A. H. Almaas), Sheri Kling, Beverly Lanzetta, Ervin Laszlo, Jay McDaniel, Raymond Moody, Peter Russell, Rupert Spira, and Becca Tarnas.

ESSAYS BY:
Ervin Laszlo,
Rupert Spira,
Amit Goswami,
Kabir Helminsky,
Beverly Lanzetta,
Jude Currivan,
Peter Russell,
Raymond Moody,
Becca Tarnas,
Sheri Kling,
Jay McDaniel,
Christopher M. Bache, and
Karen Johnson with
A. H. Almaas

From dark nights of suffering and despair, to the joy of scientific and intellectual discovery, to the aesthetic beauty of music and nature, and the blissful—and at times dreadful—shock of psychedelic, mystical and near-death experience, these spiritual memoirs reveal exceptional encounters with the Holy Mystery—a universal Mind that exceeds but also includes our very own. And, the book is deliberately catered toward group study with its “Questions for Discussion” and “Sages to Explore” sections at the end of each chapter.

“There is a mystic in every person waiting to be acknowledged. In this text, a baker’s dozen of spiritual leaders tells the stories of their unique spiritual adventures. Their stories are authentic, honest, inspiring, and challenge the reader to embark on their own spiritual quest. This text reminds us that in this moment, right where we are, we can experience the Holy. We have everything

Monkfish Book Publishing Company
22 East Market Street, Suite 304
Rhinebeck, New York 12572
845.876.4861
sandra@monkfishpublishing.com

we need to venture on the high seas of mystical adventure. The questions and suggestions that conclude each chapter make this book ideal for book groups.” —Bruce G. Epperly, author of The Elephant Is Running: Process and Open and Relational Theology and Religious Pluralism

“Physicists, medical doctors, professors, clergy, founders of spiritual centers and schools, musicians, and artists recount their unexpected personal encounters convincing them that God exists. Study questions and recommended exercises follow each narrative. Form a small group of four to eight persons to read these sacred encounters—love stories, personal hymns of praise—and undertake the exercises together. Continue to meet after you have completed all of the exercises and you will have the spiritual community you longed for but didn’t know how to create. This book is a marvelous and powerful work.” —The Rev. Dr. Thandeka, Unitarian Universality theologian; founder of Affect Theology

For author interviews, media review copies:
Sandra Cappelaro, sandra@monkfishpublishing.com

Andrew M. Davis, PhD, is an American process philosopher, theologian, and scholar of cosmological wonder. He is program director for the Center for Process Studies where he researches, teaches, and organizes conferences. He is author and editor of several books including the scholarly Mind, Value, and Cosmos: On the Relational Nature of Ultimacy, and the popular first volume of How I Found God in Everyone and Everywhere (Monkfish, 2017).